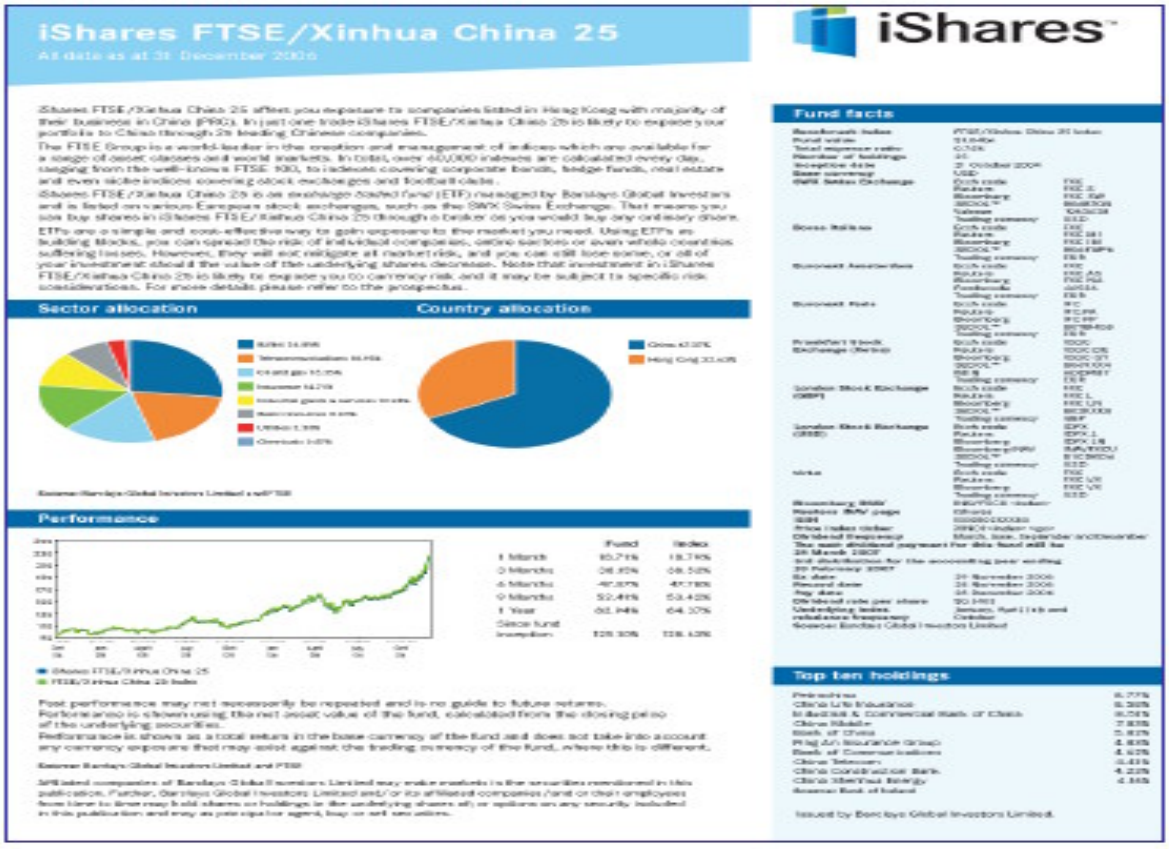
Monday Night Report – March 19, 2007

The Monday Night Report is written on Monday night, after market close. Subscribers receive the newsletter every Monday or Tuesday morning before the markets open again. Subscribers may at all times log into their account in order to review it. It is published 3 days later on StockTargets Website on a public at http://www.stocktargets.com/newsletters.html for anyone to read.

The StockTargets "Monday Night Report" by Philip Coutaz

Philip Coutaz, 55, is a Ph.D. in Economics at N.Y.U. where he also was a Teaching Assistant in Economics. Philip holds a Master in Economics from the University of Aix-en-Provence (France) and was Assistant Professor of Economics at University of Connecticut in Stamford. He was a Member of the Worldwide Investment Committee of BNP Paribas in Paris (today the largest French bank). He is one of the founders of Information Express Corp (NY) in 1986, an early online company, providing Wall Street firms with information services and automated stock screening systems prior to the emergence of the Internet. He is currently the Chief Investment Strategist at Bank SCS Alliance in Geneva.

AFTER THE STORM: Accumulate China i-shares


The I-shares FTSE/Xinhua 25 give the investor easy access to the 25 most important stocks of the Peoples Republic of China. The individual stocks are weighted by their market cap and the I-share reflects therefore perfectly the index. The I-shares are traded like stocks in London (symbol:FXC) and New York (Symbol: FXI) in a very liquid market. Easy accessibility and high liquidity are the main advantages of this ETF.